ANCESTOR WILLIAM OWEN OF BRAINTREE, MASS., AND DESCENDANTS.

COMPILED BY REV. CHAS. N. SINNETT.

BRAINTREE, MINN.

(1st generation) Ancestor William Owen of Braintree, Mass., according to the records collected by the descendants and others, is thought to have been the William Owen who came from London, England, to the Island of Barbadoes, in 1634, when he was 23 years of age. Not long after he removed to Boston, Mass., and from thence to Braintree, Mass., where he took the Freeman's Oath in 1651. He died at Braintree, Mass., in 1702.

"William Owen of Braintree, Mass., embarked, with many others, in a great speculation, in which he appears to have lost his property, for he became 'a charge upon his son Nathaniel.' It is known that money, which is still in the Bank of England, was his, or his wife's by right. All records show William Owen to have been a true gentleman."

William Owen married at Braintree, Mass., July 22, 1651 Elizabeth Davis of Braintree, Mass., who came to America from London, England, at the age of one year. "If this was William Owen's first marriage, it would seem rather a late one for that period, but no records of another marriage have been found."

(5th generation) Philip Owen Esquire, b Old Falmouth, now Portland, Me., Feb 18, 1756; d at Brunswick, Me., May 28, 1849; buried in Pine Grove cemetery, Brunswick, Me. From Hon. T.S. Mc Lellan, Brunswick, Me.: "Philip Owen lived at Topsham, Me., and then removed to Brunswick, Me., on a farm two miles up the river. He made chairs and trunks. His workshop was moved by his son, Philip Owen, and is now a coal office beside the Tontine Hotel." The Owen Pamphlet: "Philip Owen served for 4 years in the Revolutionary Army, and many pages could be written about his experiences in Washington's Army, beginning with Ticonderoga, and ending with the coming of peace. He was a member of the Mass. Legislature 1812--1813." Dr. Wheeler in his History of Brunswick, Topsham & Harpswell, Me., pages 779--780; "The following extract from a letter written by Philip Owen, June 14, 1843, to J.T. Buckingham, President of the Bunker Hill Association, in response to an invitation to attend the celebration of the Bunker Hill battle, will best show his services. He was then in his 88th year, and declined the invitation on account of his infirmities. This is the letter: 'In May, 1777, being then 21 years of age, I went with the Army to Fort Ticonderoga, and was there when General Burgoyne came up the Lake. Our Army, 3,000 in number, retreated from this point to Hubbardstown, a distance of 24 miles, when General Frazier came up in pursuit. I was in the engagement for half an hour at close quarters. And when our Army was obliged to retreat with the loss of 250 men Colonel Francis of Beverly was shot, close behind me, after a gallant defence. I was also present at the battle of Stillwater, when Gen. Frazier attacked Col. Morgan. The Gen. was reinforced by our soldiers, and the fight then became general, from 2 o'clock until dark. The surrender of Burgoyne took place three days after this, on the 17th of October. I also guarded the Army's stores at Monmouth, N.J., in 1778. And when the British General Monkton was killed his body was left in my care. I was also a witness of the execution of Major Andre, 2nd of Oct., 1780. Our Army, under Gen. Patterson, was then stationed at West Point. Having obtained leave of absence, I fell in with the guard who were appointed to attend Major Andre on that occasion, and thus had an excellent opportunity to witness the scene. The events of that day are still fresh in my mind as those of yesterday. I saw Andre remove his stock, and prepare himself for the final scene with as much composure as if attending to his usual engagements."

"76 19, 1778 fifer in Capt Wm. Lithgow's Co., 12 mo & 14 days service."

THE RECORDS OF JOHN OWEN OF THE 6TH GENERATION.

(6th generation) John Owen b at Brunswick, Me., Nov 19, 1784. The Owen Pamphlet: "He was a farmer and a caulker of vessels, and an investor in real estate and in other property; he became a man of wealth. " He was a worthy and helpful citizen of Brunswick, Me; highly esteemed by all who knew him."

Married Hannah Robinson b Kennebunk, Me., 1788;
 died at Brunswick, Me., in 1879.
 The children born at Brunswick, Me.

(7th generation) Mary Jane Owen b Apr 13, 1822; d Dec 14, 1904, aged 82 years and 8 months. "Her life was spent in her native town of Brunswick, Me., Unselfish devotion to the good of her family, and readiness to minister to the needs of those about her, were prominently characteristic of her. She had a earnest desire desire to fill her days with service, and comparative freedom from sickness up to her last brief illness, enable her to do so in a generous measure."

Married Dec 4, 1842 Theodore Stone Mc Lellan b
 at Portland, Me., Dec 12, 1811;
 d at Brunswick, Me., July 9, 1905. He was the son of Joseph Mc Lellan who was born at Portland, Me., Apr 1762; d at Brunswick, Me., Nov ., 1844; and buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Brunswick, Me. Joseph Mc Lellan lived at the Me.
 towns, Portland, Gray & Brunswick; shipmaster & farmer. He married Rebecca Stone, who was born 1766; and died June 19, 1825.

Obituary from the Brunswick, Me., Record:
 "Theodore S. Mc Lellan passed away Sunday morning, July 9th, 1905, after an illness of only a few days. On the Monday preceding his death he was seen on the street for the last time, and he then spoke of a weakness which betokened the approaching end of a long life.
 The funeral on Tuesday was conducted by the United Lodge of Masons, of which body he was the oldest member. The Masons, after assembling at their hall, marched to the residence on Park Row, and the impressive services of the Order were performed by Rev. E. D. Johnson, Rector of St. Paul's Church and Chaplain of the Lodge.
 Selections were given by the Aeolian Quartette of Lewiston, Me. The bearers were, Lyman E. Smith, A.F. Varney, C.A. Pierce, and S.C. Whitmore, all members of the Masonic Lodge. A splendid floral triangle, bearing the design of the square and compass, was the conspicuous tribute to this departed brother. The Masons again formed in line, and escorted the remains to Pine Grove Cemetery where the burial rites were performed. For the greater part of the century Mr. Theodore S. Mc Lellan had lived at Brunswick, Me., and in his remarkably retentive memory he had a wonderful knowledge of the town and of its people. His personal knowledge of Brunswick was greater than that of any man now living, and it was always a pleasure to him to talk of the changes that had come to pass within his lifetime. He was very much interested in Masonry, and regularly attended the meetings of the United Lodge even up to his last days. His devotion to the Lodge made it especially appropriate for his Brother Masons to have charge of his funeral, and the large number of them in line testified to the affection and respect that was felt towards him. Mr. Mc Lellan was undoubtedly the oldest printer in Maine, and one of the oldest publishers. Although he had not for many years been engaged in active work, in these lines of work he was always interested, and had a deep interest in printing and in the newspapers. He called frequently at the Brunswick Record office, and always had a story, or some items of news, to contribute. Age had affected his hearing and sight, but had not affected his memory, his interest in the events of the day, or his gentle disposition. He was born at Gray, Me., His father, Joseph Mc Lellan, came to Brunswick, Me., in 1819, when Theodore S. was 8 years old. His mother, Rebecca Stone, was born in Fort George, Brunswick, Me. Here Theodore S. Mc Lellan attended school; first as a pupil in the private school of Mrs. Catherine Putnam, at the Corner of Maine & Lincoln streets. Then he entered a public school in a building in a building on Federal St., which is now the home of the Niagara Engine Company. Later he attended the Red School, on what is now School Street. As a schoolboy he became acquainted with Longfellow, Hawthorne, and Franklin Pierce., who were then students at Bowdoin College. With Franklin Pierce Mr. Mc Lellan used to take long tramps in the woods, and they often went pigeon hunting. After his school days Mr. Mc Lellan took up the printer's trade, and served his time in the office of Joseph Griffin. While there he did all the work on Longfellow's 'Outs at Sea, or Tales of the Sea.' After his apprenticeship Mr. Mc Lellan decided to do newspaper work, and during 1837 and 1838 he published the Regulator, a Democratic paper, of which I. E. Beard was editor. This was followed in 1842 by the Brunswick, which he, with John Dunlap as editor, published as a neutral paper. This was succeeded by the Yaggershammer, of which only a few numbers were published before its suspension. His father, Joseph Mc Lellan, was Post Master of Brunswick, Me.,

1828--1840, and when the father decided to retire from this work in 1840, he announced himself as a candidate for the position, and received his appointment on Dec 29th of that year. He served until Feb 9, 1848, and was succeeded by Elijah J. Pike, who served for only a few months over a year. On Sept 11th, 1843 1843, Mr. Mc Lellan was again appointed Post master, and retained the position until May 2, 1849. One of the most interesting chapters in his life dates back to the '50's, when he was in California. While working in the gold mines at Sacramento he met a man who had taken the contract to do the State printing, and who wanted a book printer. 'He asked me to go to work, for him,' said Mr. Mc Lellan, 'and offered me $16.00 per day to act as foreman. The regular hands were paid $12.00 per day. I went to work, and, after the contract was completed, I bought an interest in the establishment.

I remember well the first day that I worked there. After we had completed the day's work of ten hours, a man came in and wanted 30 copies of a small handbill printed. None of the others were willing to work overtime, so, to accommodate him, I did the job, charging him $20.00. That price didn't seem at all unreasonable. Our paper was a four-page sheet, and sold for 25 cents per copy. Board was $15.00 a week. Doctor's charged $16.00 a visit. Other things were in that proportion.' In 1852 Mr. Mc Lellan was taken seriously ill, and was compelled to return to Brunswick, Me.

In 1842 he took the degrees of the United Lodge of Masons, No. 8, at Brunswick. In 1848 he took the degrees in Montgomery Chapter. Apr 18, 1900 at the age of 88, he took the degrees in the Mount Vernon Council, being the oldest man in the U.S. that ever took that degree. He had distinguished ancestors. His father, Joseph Mc Lellan, as a boy, joined a privateer's crew in the Revolutionary War. His grandfather got the news of the battle of Lexington in Portland, Me., on Sunday morning, and the next day started with five other men to join Col. Prescott's Army at Cambridge, Mass. Later on he was sent home to raise a Company. The two oldest sons also went to War, but Mr. Joseph Mc Lellan, being only 12 years old, was persuaded to stay at home. The martial spirit of that time, however, soon prevailed over the counsel of his parents, and he went aboard a privateer at Portland, Me. The vessel was captured by a British war ship and sent to St. John. Mr. Joseph Mc Lellan, with another boy, was sent ashore at Mount Desert Island, Me., to dig clams. They took advantage of this opportunity to escape. After two days and nights in the woods they reached Waldoboro, Me., Joseph Mc Lellan became Post Master at Gray, Me., before his removal to Brunswick. Mr. Theodore S. Mc Lellan's grandfather on his mother's side kept a tavern in Brunswick, Me., in 1764, at the corner of Mill and Maine streets. He paid $2.00 for a lot of land that extended 12 rods wide on Maine St."

The children of Mary Jane Owen & Theodore S. Mc Lellan.
born at Brunswick, Me

(8th generation) Charles Theodore Mc Lellan born Aug 2, 1846; resides 421 Woodlawn Ave., Topeka, Kansas. Schools of Brunswick, Me., & attended the Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Military Academy & the Business College of Poughkeepsie. In 1868 he entered on his railroad career in Iowa, as brakeman on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. He became chief clerk in the office of the Division Superintendent at Las Vegas, New Mexico, and later on was made train master. He served as train master and conductor of the International & Great Northern, and then of the Texas and Pacific railroads in Texas. In 1887 he entered the position of Division Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Atchinson, Topeka & South Western Railroad Company, and was elected its President when the road was sold. He is a man of great executive ability, and of sturdy character.

Mr. Mc Lellan worked for the Santa Fe railroad over 23 years, and for more than 15 years was its Division Superintendent. Then made President of the Leavenworth & Topeka railroad. He is gifted with a personality similar to that which has made Mr. Kudge and Mr. Cain so well liked and respected on the Santa Fe railroad. He made a remarkable record in handling the heavy work that fell upon him on his Division during the floods and high water on several important occasions. Then, too, he handled the work of the Ottawa cut-off, and elsewhere, in a truly admirable manner. Grades were changed, and the track was raised or lowered as much as eight feet, without stopping or delaying the traffic over the lines at any time. Curves were reduced while trains were passing every day. Double tracks have been put in and ballasted, and all was done in a most satisfactory and gratifying manner, under Mr. Mc Lellan's wise care."

THE RECORDS OF WILLIAM OWEN OF THE 4TH GENERATION.

(4th generation) William Owen b Falmouth, now Portland, Me., Apr 23, 1739; d at Brunswick, Me., July 3, 1799, aged 62 yrs, 2 months & 10 days.

Baptized in the First Congregational Church of Falmouth, Me. He served in the War with the French and Indians, being a member of the Military Company which was stationed at Falmouth Neck, Me., Nov. 1757. His brothers John and Thomas served in the same Company. He was a cabinet maker by trade. He lived in Falmouth, Me., at the time when it was bombarded by the British; his house which stood on the present site of the Portland Post Office, was destroyed. "William Owen and his wife were dismissed from the First Congregational Church of Falmouth, Me., to unite with the old Congregational Church at Brunswick, Me., 1765." But this date seems a little early, as he does not seem to have permanently resided at Brunswick, Me., until a much later date. And it is distinctly stated that William Owen and his wife united with the 1st Congregational Church, Falmouth, Me., Sept 29, 1765. William Owen served on several very important committees at Falmouth, Me., during the Revolutionary War. About 1785 he was Representative to the General Court. Registry of Deeds, Portland, Me.: On July 21, 1778, William Owen of Falmouth, Me., and his wife Mary, gave to Margaret Owen, widow, all title to land in Falmouth, Me." "William Owen's home at Brunswick, Me., probably stood on the lot now occupied by the Benjamin Greene, house." William Owen and his wife were very faithful members of the 1st Congregational Church at Brunswick, Me. He and his wife, and their children Mary and Samuel, are buried in the old cemetery near the First Church site, Brunswick, Me.

James Britton Owen, Dayton, Ohio, "I have in my possession a sample of the cabinet work of William Owen, an old secretary which he made about the time of the Revolutionary War. It is still in service, and is in good condition. His home at Falmouth, Me., was destroyed at the time of the British bombardment in 1778, and he then removed to Brunswick, Me., where lived the Dunning Family, of which his wife was a member."

ANCESTOR HUGH OWEN OF MONMOUTH & WALES, MAINE.
He was probably the Hugh White Owen of page 47.

COMPILED BY REV. CHAS. W. SIMONETT.

(1st generation) Ancestor Hugh Owen. He is given as the Ancestor, and thus of the 1st generation, because the descendants could not clearly trace their line beyond him, though they felt sure that he was descended from the Owens of Falmouth, now Portland, Me. The records say, "Hugh Owen was one of the early settlers of Monmouth Plantation. But, in the absence of authentic data, it is impossible to decide, approximately, when he became a resident there. If he came in 1805, which is as early a date as either the records or the traditions of the family will allow, he was a man of 36 years when he began to clear his farm. He selected the broad stretch of rolling land, bordering on Sabattus Road Pond, and immediately north of the clearing of John Hamilton, the tanner. He came with a large family, for at least five of his children, and perhaps all of his eight children, were born before he left Lisbon, Me." This last statement would seem to show that he was closely connected with the Owens of Brunswick and Topsham, Me. The name of his wife is not given in the data sent. The children as mentioned.
